

A dreamy-eyed Marley gets comfy in her new shorty-nightgown set while she listens to mellow music and waits for busy big sister Tyler to join her for their own little pajama party.

Materials:

Cotton, solid or small print fabric

Optional contrast cotton fabric for neck and armhole bindings or purchased bias tape

3 small sew-on snaps.

¼" elastic

1/8" elastic

Thread to match your fabric.

"Pajama Party" pattern is designed to fit the 12" fashion dolls by Robert Tonner such as Marley Wentworth.

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Evenly gather the top edge of the front to fit the yoke and sew the two pieces together. Clean finish the seam with a serger or zigzag stitch. Press the seam up and topstitch.
2. Sew the front to the back at the shoulder seams. Clean finish the seam and press towards the back.
3. Staystitch the neck and armholes along the stitching line. Trim down close to the stitching and clip the curves.
4. Apply bias tape or self-made double fold bias strips to the neck and armholes.
5. Sew the side seams and clean finish.
6. Apply bias tape to the hem edge.
7. Clean finish the back opening edges. Turn each edge under and topstitch.
8. Finish the back opening with sew-on snaps. Trim the center front at the yoke with a ribbon bow or purchased flower appliqué.
9. Sew the center front seam of the panties. Clip the curve and clean finish.
10. Clean finish the waist edge and both leg hem edges. Press the hem edges up and topstitch.
11. Press the fold line in at the waist edge. Thread 5" of ¼" elastic through the casing.
12. Stretch and sew 1/8" elastic along the line indicated on the panty legs using a zigzag stitch to make a casing over the elastic. Pull the elastic up to 2 ½" on each leg and sew the ends down to hold in place.
13. Sew the center back seam. Clip the curve and clean finish the seam.
14. Sew the crotch seam and clean finish. Trim at the sides with ribbon bows or purchased flower appliqués.
